

WILLIAM R. KOTAPISH

William R. Kotapish was born in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1928. He received his AB (1950) and MA (1951) from the University of Michigan, where he was awarded the Regent's Alumni Scholarship as an undergraduate and the Campbell Scholarship as a graduate student. He majored in psychology, education, and personnel administration. While engaged in graduate studies at the University of Michigan, Mr. Kotapish attained faculty status by serving as a resident counselor. In June, 1950, he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army Reserve. Since arriving in Washington, he has continued graduate study at George Washington University, where he is currently a member of the Graduate Counsel as a doctoral candidate for the PhD degree in Psychology. He is a member of Psy Chi, an honorary society for psychologists. He has been with CIA since September 1951.